INTRODUCING

Recently Remodeled Home

Welcome to this fully renovated gem nestled in one of Indianapolis's most beloved neighborhoods, Irvington. From the moment you arrive, the charming covered front porch invites you to slow down and enjoy the character this home and community have to offer. The open-concept main floor features refinished original hardwood floors, fresh paint throughout, and all new fixtures and finishes. The kitchen was completely reimagined with new cabinetry, stone countertops, a peninsula, tile backsplash, pendant lighting, and new stainless appliances. The full bathroom received a total gut renovation with a tiled shower surround to the ceiling, new tub, vanity, and fixtures. New windows fill every room with natural light, and the exterior has been freshly painted with new entry doors front and back. Home has a new water heater and plumbing throughout. Outside, enjoy a spacious yard and a two-car detached garage with a new door, motor, and freshly painted exterior. Located just steps from Ellenberger Park and within easy reach of Irvington's thriving dining and shopping scene, plus quick interstate access to downtown Indianapolis.
